

No 435 / June 14 2010

www.CosmeticNews.com

In the posh Hyde Park Shopping Centre is Metropolitan Cosmetics, a small and exclusive beauty emporium with a distinct French flair, established in 2005 by a Frenchman, Wilfrid Moulin, and his South African-born, French-speaking partner, Melissa Brown. With brands like Serge Lutens, Nobile 1942, Parfums d'Empire, Neotantric Fragrances and Etat Libre d'Orange, Metropolitan has brought a new level of sophistication and luxury to the beauty retail landscape in the country, complemented by trained and knowledgeable staff. In addition to fragrances, Metropolitan also offers men comprehensive skin care, shaving and grooming ranges.